Looking for pilots

The 9thAF 23rdFG is recruiting, we are looking for fresh A-10A pilot applications.

If you are interested in team tactics and want to fly the A-10 like the real thing, feel free to visit the join us page. We are not a big squadron but we want to grow and you can be part of it. International applications are more than welcome, we currently have members from North America and Europe.

Squadron news

The different Roster sections have been merged and the command structure has been updated a bit. Cephus decided to step down from the ground assault wing command but will remain an instructor pilot. Nachtwolf will now assume ground assault wing commander duties.
